F. BRISKO IS HERO AT CHICAGO ARMORY INDOOR MIDGET RACES

Story on Page 3

BILL HOLMES AND EDDIE ZIMMERMAN in action at the New York Coliseum. Since Eddie has been driving No. 19 he has been real competition. Saturday night Holmes competed in the Fair Grounds Coliseum in Detroit, and on Sunday night in the 124th Field Artillery Armory in Chicago.

THE MIDGET—Joe W. Thoms, American racing ace (standing), with the car he drove in the Monte Carlo Rally. He is to return to England with team of midget drivers to compete in a speedway meeting. In the midget car is Jean Reville, Wimbledon.

JEAN REVILLE, "father of midget racing" in England. Since introducing the sport he has had many peculiar experiences before finally popularizing the small cars in conservative Britain. At the Reville Shops, at Wimbledon, Eng. there are at the present time more than 50 midgets under course of construction. Reville has also been active as a promoter and driver.

HARRY SCHLEIMAN, South Orange, has received the highest honor for a 3-A representative, honorary referee at Indianapolis.
